RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT AND FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

Your Petitioner reports that the defendant has violated the following condition of his supervised release:

The defendant shall not commit another county, state, or federal crime.

The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician.

The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.

Mr. Stovall was charged on February 23, 2013, by the Erie, Pennsylvania Police Department with the following: Operating With Unsafe Equipment, Possession With Intent to Deliver (Marijuana), Use/Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol and/or Controlled Substance. According to the criminal complaint filed on February 23, 2013, by the Erie Police Department, on this date the defendant was observed driving a Toyota van that had dark tinted windows. As a result, a vehicle stop was initiated by the police. Police determined that the tint on the windows were outside of acceptable limits. The complaint further accuses Mr. Stovall of possessing a baggie which contained six containers that were individually sealed and labeled. Each container contained amounts of marijuana meant for sale. Lastly, the complaint alleges that Mr. Stovall was operating the vehicle while under the influence of marijuana. On November 5, 2013, Mr. Stovall pled guilty in the Erie County Court of Common Pleas to Unlawful Activities and Disorderly Conduct, both summary offenses. The case is docketed at 1754 of 2013. Mr. Stovall was sentenced to pay fines and costs. The charges of Possession With Intent to Deliver and Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol and/or Controlled Substance were nolle prossed.
